THE BEST OF 1977

THE MYTH OF GOD INCARNATE
Edited by John Hick

Interest has been intense, and reactions sometimes violent. More positively the hope has been expressed that 'this book will get Jesus talked about'. Perhaps, too, it will prepare the way for theological developments which will enable Christianity to survive the twentieth century. (paper) £2.95

ICONOGRAPHY OF RELIGIONS: AN INTRODUCTION
Albert C. Moore

As the title suggests this generously illustrated guide is intended as an introductory textbook. 'The copious notes and select bibliography provide incentive to investigate all aspects of the history, philosophy, theology and working of the images and symbols presented here'. (Hilary Finch in the Times Educational Supplement).
£12.50

FUNDAMENTALISM
James Barr

This comprehensive study, based on the critical appraisal of a wide range of conservative writing, argues that although the phenomenon of fundamentalism is frequently misunderstood and needs to be appreciated more deeply, it is nevertheless an intellectually incoherent position, and can be contradictory to Christianity. 'Every persevering reader will put down this book better informed. Some may be disturbed, others will be grateful. It merits diligent study' (The Officer) (paper) £2.95

READING THROUGH ROMANS
C. K. Barrett

The return has been welcomed of this short study intended to help those for whom larger-scale commentaries are too difficult. 'The hesitant reader is introduced by easy stages to the Church's classic explanation of the Gospel, and given a clear grasp of fundamental Christian truth' (Scottish Baptist). (paper) 90p

THE CHURCH IN THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT
Jurgen Moltmann

The trilogy begun with Theology of Hope and The Crucified God is now continued with an account of the church. The author 'is seen to be no mere armchair theologian. This work comes out of practical experience and pastoral concern' (Life and Work). £6.95
